Buck Carpenter, Sonoma's prize waltzer, was among the many who was seen at Agua Caliente last Sunday. This Carpenter boy is some ragger and with his pants rolled up had everybody eyeing him as he stepped around the dance pavilion, the girls thought he was just too cute for anything.

A mix-up between a local rancher and a summer visitor fresh from old Ireland was the big excitement here one day last week. The lad from Erin uncorked a vicious jaw breaker which sent the rancher down for the count. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the man with the terrible kick, but he managed to give the officer the slip. The trouble was caused by the rancher accusing the visitor of stealing his corn.

The Gaelic dancing club of San Francisco, four hundred strong, had its outing at Agua Caliente Springs Sunday. Dancing was one of the features of the day and the picnicers had a jolly good time. P. Kelleher, the champion Irish jig dancer of the Pacific coast, accompanied the picnicers and entertained those present with his jig dancing.

Albertson was in town from Sonoma last Monday in the interest of Henry Bates' undertaking establishment looking over the Weise ones and finding them with a confident political smile he came to the conclusion before leaving town that the demand for dead ones on the Weise side after election would be very small and Jim returned to old Sonoma town happy.

Sailor Ed. Petroskey, who recently fought Bob McAllister in San Francisco and who, in the writer's opinion, should have been awarded the decision, is now resting up for a few days at Charley Miller's villa. The sailor looks none the worse for his fierce twenty-round bout and is already matched to meet Jimmie Clabby, a crack eastern middleweight. Louis Parente is managing the sailor boy.

Guy Jap King Bigelow, the would-be representative of morality in this valley, in the farce election to recall Supervisor Weise, was given the hooks in last Tuesday's election in his own precinct, El Verano, to the tune of three to one. The election passed off sweetly and only for our local lady politician, who imagines the people are blind to her political methods, and Frank Weaver the election would have been without incident.

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER, El Verano, Sept. 15, 1913.

Muss. Answer For Assault With Deadly Weapon

After hearing testimony in the case against John Ritzman Friday afternoon he was held to answer to the Superior Court by Judge Latimer of Santa Rosa on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

The complaining witness in the case is Mrs. Theresa Bell, a wealthy large ranch in Glen Ellen. She told of the trouble with Ritzman, saying that she found fault with him for work that he did. Ritzman began abusing her, calling her vile names. She said she turned to leave him and he followed her. She picked up a club to defend herself, as he was threatening her, and he ran to his carpenter's apron and pulled out a gun with which he began to shoot at her. Only the fact that the gun caught in the apron prevented the first shot from striking her. As Ritzman started to fire the second time J. Rullnith, her son-in-law, struck him over the head with a water pitcher and the shot went wild.

Ritzman took the stand in his own behalf, but would say little. He claimed that he feared for his life at the hands of Mrs. Bell and that he shot in self defense. Judge Latimer held him to the Superior Court in the sum of $3000 bail in default of which he was taken to the county jail to await trial.

BIGELOW IS REBUKED BY THE VOTERS.

He Ought to Now Realize that Villification, Abuse and Misrepresentation Do Not Win Elections ---His Attempted Recall a Dead Failure.

The election last Tuesday was no surprise to the Index-Tribune, as it was a contest pure and simple between J. K. Bigelow, who would rule this valley or ruin it, and the people of the first Supervisorial district.

Elmer Kilgore, the recall candidate, was utterly ignored in the campaign which narrowed itself down as to whether an unscrupulous hypocrite should rule this district or the people.

Bigelow must now realize that villification, abuse and misrepresentation don't win elections.

The result which was a Waterloo for the would-be boss was as follows:

Yes. No. Sonoma Precinct..... 93 215 Vineburg Precinct..... 37 104 San Luis Precinct..... 37 104 El Verano Precinct..... 46 113 Agua Caliente Precinct..... 15 125 Cotati Precinct..... 31 122 Penngrove Precinct..... 60 151 Elmore Precinct..... 37 130 Kenwood Precinct..... 31 130 Glen Ellen Precinct..... 33 130 Lakeville Precinct..... 18 130 Total..... 466

"Do You Get Me?"

That buffoon of Sonoma Valley politics, J. K. Bigelow, at the closing meeting here of the recall campaign against Supervisor Weise, was one of the speakers of the evening. He strutted grandiloquently before the deluded females who occupied seats on the platform as Vice-Presidents of the meeting and every now and then to emphasize his foolish utterances he would pause, look wise and ask: "Do you get me?" Finally this sort of thing became kind of irksome to one of the voters in the audience who rose to his feet and pointing his finger at Bigelow in stentorian tones called out: "No, but we will get you tomorrow," and this turned the laugh on the fake reformer and, what is more, the people did get him at Tuesday's election and gave him the rebuke of his life.

Ballot Reform---The Expositor Editor Would Vote Illegally.

In a recent issue of the Expositor, which is edited by J. K. Bigelow and J. A. Landsborough, in a burst of apparent patriotism and to protect the sacredness of the ballot these worthies offered a reward of $25 for the detection of any one found to be falsely registered and attempting to vote. Now, Landsborough is not a citizen of the United States, although having voted illegally at previous elections here. At Tuesday's election his vote was challenged by Chas. Potter of San Luis precinct on the grounds that he was not a citizen. He was then given the alternative of swearing in his vote or quitting and he quit. We understand his case will be called to the attention of the proper authorities and we opine that the Expositor editor is up against it. A great ballot reformer that. "Do you get me?"

All Hail to the Four Voting Precincts of Vallejo Township.

In the recent recall election Vallejo Township with its four voting precincts, all of which gave decisive majorities against Bigelow and his fool recall election, must not be lost sight of. In the four precincts of Lakeville, Pennigrove, Cotati and Elmore, out of total vote of 616 only 156 voters favored the recall of Supervisor Weise and 460 were against it, and that, too, in face of the fact that misrepresentation, vilification and downright lying were resorted to by the Bigelow crowd to force an honest public official out of office and disgrace him.

The defeat of Bigelow and the vindication of Supervisor Weise "in the voting precincts over the hill" was brought about in a great measure by Gil P. Hall, a prominent attorney of Petaluma, who took the stump in favor of Mr. Weise and against the man who would recall and ruin him. Hall is a fighter and believes in fighting fire with fire, and he was right there with the goods. He did more than his share toward giving the Conceited Ass of the Sonoma Valley the beating of his life. Summed up, Bigelowism is dead beyond resurrection in Vallejo Township. Same here. "Do you get me?"

The Weise-Bigelow Libel Suit.

The suit instituted in the Superior Court of this county, one day last week, by Supervisor J. H. Weise against Guy J. K. Bigelow to recover the sum of $65,000 damages for defamation of character is attracting wide attention in this valley.

This suit is the outcome of a speech made by Bigelow at Cotati, wherein he charged that Supervisor Weise had accepted a bribe of $1750 from Mrs. Fettes for the granting of a liquor license for the club house at the Fettes Hot Springs.

As a matter of course the charge is utterly false and was uttered by Bigelow in an insane desire to ruin the reputation of Supervisor Weise and encompass his political defeat at the polls at last Tuesday's election. He utterly failed in this as Mr. Weise was more than vindicated at the polls, the voters in every precinct in the Supervisorial district voting against his recall by immense majorities, in some instances over six to one and in every instance except one over two to one.

Now, with the vindication of Supervisor Weise by the people of his district we opine that Bigelow is up against the real thing in the damage suit he has been called upon to defend. That the jury which tries this suit will bring in a verdict in favor of Supervisor Weise does not admit of a doubt in the minds of the people of this valley, where both men are best known—the one man as an honest official and a good citizen and the other as a falsifier, mischief maker and a libeler of good men's reputations.

A jury or judge when the real facts of the libel suit is threshed out in court that would refuse to give a judgement in favor of Harry Weise would be lax in their duty. We make no hesitancy in saying that unless Bigelow can make good his charge he should be cinched for every cent sued for by Mr. Weise, who is a poor man and whose principal asset is a good reputation won by him during a residence here of a life time.

The Recall Election.

That the newspapers of Sonoma county, regardless of political affiliations, are now standing in with the INDEX-TRIBUNE in its efforts to down that arch mischief-maker and trouble-breeder of the Sonoma Valley, "one J. K. Bigelow," as he was recently designated by the Santa Rosa Republican, no better evidence is wanting than the following excerpt from the Press Democrat's leading editorial of last Wednesday morning:

"Yesterday's recall election in the First Supervisorial district turned out exactly as expected, the voters declaring their disapproval of such child's play by a majority of more than three to one. There was nothing in the charges against Supervisor Weise to justify his recall. The people generally recognized the fact. In voting as they did, the people of the First district also voiced strong and unmistakable disapproval of the tactics employed by certain of Supervisor Weise's opponents, and of what was generally regarded as an attempt upon the part of one man to satisfy a personal grudge at public expense. It will not do for one man to say to another in public office, 'I will recall you.' That is the province of the people only."

Yesterday's election was a clear and flagrant abuse of the principle of the recall. No election should ever have been held for there was nothing to justify it. The law should be amended so that it will no longer be possible to start a recall movement on a triviality or as the result of personal animosity only. The county has been put to too much unnecessary expense, feelings have been engendered that may never be allayed, and a public official has been compelled to go far out of his way to defend his position from slanderous attacks that were without justification or merit. This is all wrong. Any law that permits it is all wrong. The law of recall must be amended so that it will no longer be subject to such easy abuse."

Man Dies in Agony from Bite of Mad Dog.

C. R. Linville, who was recently bitten by a mad dog while on a camping trip in Mendocino county, died of hydrophobia in Santa Rosa last Wednesday.

The Press Democrat says that Linville came to Santa Rosa last Tuesday morning to see Dr. Jesse about the pains that had attacked him in the arm where he was twice bitten by one of his dogs a month ago. The pain, he said, had also asserted itself in his neck. He was taken to the hospital and serum administered by Dr. Jesse under the direction of Dr. Sawyer, the eminent pathologist of the State University. Toward night the pain diminished and then Linville experienced a choking sensation in the throat and had a convulsion. Dr. Jesse stated Tuesday night that the man could not live.

Wednesday morning convulsions set in again and lasted at intervals until the end came. Prior to his death the man had frothed at the mouth.

Dr. Jesse performed an autopsy and a portion of the man's brain will be taken by Dr. A. R. Howard to the pathological laboratory at the State University for dissection.

Herman Schultz, the dead man's partner, who was with him on the camping trip on the Gualala river when the dog bit Linville, was also bitten by the same dog. He came to town Wednesday morning after Linville's death and talked over the case with Dr. Jesse. He is not sure whether the dog's teeth drew blood from him or not. Up to the present time he has not experienced any trouble. He will think over the matter whether he will submit to treatment or not. The dog that bit the men was killed some time since, after it had bitten other canines.

Hay Market.

Somer's & Co., in their weekly bulletin report the hay market for the past week as follows:

Receipts of hay continue to decrease, the total for the past week amounting to but 2784 tons, a considerable portion of which was alfalfa hay from the river districts which is being placed principally on contracts previously made. The heavy receipts of July and August which were greater than any two months' receipts for several years past, have so supplied the demand here that at the present time there is but little demand for hay except fancy types of wheat and tame oat which are in light supply and are selling quite readily and at prices a little higher than previously quoted.

Although the harvest season with the exception of alfalfa, is over, yet here and there are a few lots of hay out of doors seeking a market, which will probably supply all requirements until such time as the first rains come, when hay must be taken from warehouse stock. Large quantities of alfalfa are being offered from various sections but do not find ready sale at present and therefore many producers are preparing to stack their hay and bale it at such times as winter demands warrants.

Card of Thanks From J. H. Weise

Please permit me an opportunity through the columns of the Sonoma Index-Tribune to thank all my friends in the First Supervisorial District who rallied to my support and gave a further expression of confidence in me in the splendid majority given me at the polls last Tuesday when my traducers sought to belittle me and remove me from office. It was a great victory and I am profoundly grateful to all those who assisted by their votes and work in the eminently satisfactory result of the recall election. I shall hope to continue to merit the approval of my friends in my conduct of the office I hold as Supervisor of the First District of Sonoma County.

Congregational Church, September 21st, 1913

Morning Services at 11 a. m.

No man can see his neighbor's heart, nor can any man know his neighbor's situation and environment. We can pronounce a just sentence on any man, but we may connect things and their qualities and infer laws from results of experiment. Some men habitually and constantly show certain traits; I may say they are sweet, but that is not judgment of them. It is merely knowledge. Some men always and forever show traits of a kind that causes you to reach for your nose. I cannot pronounce a harsh sentence upon them. I can know them. We are all stewards of God. Some are just and some are unjust. I would not make a man unjust, but I may know it. Let me tell you about a wise trait in an unjust steward.

Evening service at 7:30 p. m.

God loves us. We are not opposed to that, but when God makes it a condition of a man's salvation that He loves you and tries to get you to live an honor and praise to God, you want him to mind his own business. Everybody who is a follower of Christ does not have a zeal according to knowledge, but no man's failure will justify you. Every relation that now is will pass away, except your relation to God and it is not very good horse sense to neglect it. I do not ask anything of you. Be anything you like consistent with filial piety. We will talk about this subject next Sunday evening.

Scientists can make sounds visible by the symmetrical lines into which heaps of sand, upon a bit of paper are cast by the vibrations of a string. God has made invisible love easy to be seen in the life and sacrifice of Jesus. The same kind of vibrations that make us hear a song, make all color and all light. Every star is a song of God to men. Did you ever see and hear Marconi's songs to God. There are lots of things that are in spite of your limitation. Get on to your job. Give God the honor and glory due His name.

BIGELOW SUED FOR $65,000 DAMAGES.

The Arch Slanderer May Have to Pay Very Dear for Defaming Supervisor
Weise

A damage suit for $65,000 was filed Saturday against Guy J. K. Bigelow by attorney W. F. Cowan, acting for Supervisor Harry Weise. The grounds of the suit are defamation of character and slander and it is claimed that the utterances of Bigelow during the recent campaign speeches for the recall of Weise, containing statements that are slanderous and false.

The statements made by Bigelow upon which the suit is brought were made in the Ladies' Improvement Club Hall in Cotati, at a political meeting held there on September 8th.

Three specifications are contained in the suit. The first two set forth that Bigelow charged Supervisor Weise with accepting a bribe in the passage of the Fetter's Springs resort license. For each of these damages in the sum of $25,000 are asked. In the third specification it is set forth that Bigelow stated that Supervisor Weise had admitted to him that he was boozey, meaning "drunk" during sessions of the Board, and that he was thus influenced to grant the liquor license. On this specification $15,000 damages is asked.

In the cases where Bigelow charged Weise with accepting bribes his language is quoted in the complaint, and Bigelow is shown as admitting that he has not the necessary proof to back up the allegations and innuendoes in the same breath that he makes the charges, which impute what he says he cannot prove.

Attorney Cowan stated Saturday morning just after the filing of the suit, that it would be vigorously prosecuted and forced to trial as rapidly as possible.

It is needless to say that Supervisor Weise absolutely and unqualifiedly denies every allegation and imputation made by Bigelow, and says that everybody in the district knows that the charges are campaign slanders, designed to blacken the character of an honest man in the hope that they might escape answer in time to affect certain votes.

The persistent utterance of these baseless assertions have made it obligatory on Mr. Weise to seek the only redress open—the courts.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

High school is in full swing again with twenty-two new attractions, and a new principal who has already found a warm place in the hearts of the pupils.

The Freshmen have been welcomed with the regular annual hop, which according to all present, especially the punch drinkers, was a great success.

A new custom has been inaugurated which will add much to the pleasure of the school. Song books have been ordered and school will open three times a week with singing. The exact days will be announced later. This explains the mystery (?)—who turns the bunch of Caruso's loose in the boys' room every day at the noon hour?

The rubbish and dry grass on the school grounds was burned during the last week by the boys, ably headed by Professor Rowell. We are getting the grounds ready for the new Auditorium for which plans are being now drawn, and which is to be built in the near future.

BIGELOW'S EDITOR IS TURNED DOWN

Attempts to Vote Illegally and is Deprived of his Ballot
Because he is not a Citizen.

The Santa Rosa Republican of last Tuesday goes after A. J. Landsborough, Bigelow's editor-in-chief, in the following language. We republish this to prove that the leading newspapers of Sonoma county have joined in with the Index-Tribune in its efforts to show up Bigelow and his fakir satellites:

"After weeks of howling about voters being illegally registered and threatening prosecutions for any one who voted without being legally entitled to the Expositor rank against a stubborn snag at the election Tuesday, Guy J. K. Bigelow's editor of the sheet which did the howling, A. J. Landsborough, attempted to vote—and changed his mind. He went to the polls, called for his ballot, and was challenged on the ground that he was not a citizen of the United States. Landsborough refused to make affidavit that he was, evidently fearful of results. He had voted previously on his registration, and the attention of the authorities will be called to his actions.

Bigelow has offered a reward of $25 each for voters illegally registered who voted at the election and it would seem that he had better look into matters close at home before watching the general public. The public seems to be pretty well able to take care of itself without the Bigelow assistance and regardless of the Bigelow finances.

Recently the Expositor had the effrontery to publish the names of about one hundred citizens who had registered, and to suggest that there might be illegal voters among them. Coupled with this publication was the offer of $25 of the Bigelow money for any illegal voters."

Chas. Potter of San Luis Precinct, who challenged Landsborough's vote is now entitled to $50 of Bigelow's money as his challenge also killed Mrs. Landsborough's vote.

Tax Levy for Sonoma County

The Board of Supervisors of Sonoma County met in accordance with law and fixed the tax levy for the ensuing year, namely, $1.20 inside cities, and $1.60 outside. It was hoped to have lowered the rate a trifle, but with the contemplated erection of a new county jail the Supervisors could not devise a method whereby this could be done.

The tax levy is divided up as follows:

State Rate
Panama Pacific Exposition tax	$0.42
County Rate
Bond fund	0.44
State Highway bond tax	0.07
Salary fund	0.15
Indigent fund	0.17
School fund	0.29
Advertising fund	0.01
General fund	0.437
Panama Pacific tax (county)	0.05
Total inside cities	$1.20
Road fund	0.40
Total outside cities	$1.60

In a number of the school districts where there are bonds outstanding and special taxes, those amounts will be added to the other assessment.

Chairman C. L. Patterson and Supervisors William King, Harry Weise, T. J. Hutchinson and Lyman Green were present and the deliberations over the road levy, the compilation of figures, etc., occupied the entire day.
